RMCPSC Transition Policy date 12-03-2024

Policy for transfer of applicants/ certified clients under Ready Mix Concrete Plant Certification Scheme

(RMCPSC) applicable w.e.f. 12 March 2024 in addition to the existing scheme requirements

In view of the withdrawal of approval of any CB under the scheme Ready Mix Concrete Plant Certification Scheme (RMCPSC)

The following shall be adhered while transferring the applicant/ certified clients to other CB:

1. Management of certified approved clients and transfer of clients shall be done through QCI.
2. Clients shall be distributed based on geographical proximity and random selection among accredited CBs (in case, accredited CBs are not available clients can be transferred to provisionally approved CBs). Further, if any accredited CB is not ready QCI may distribute those clients among rest of the approved CBs.
3. Formal consent need to be given by all the CBs for proposed distribution and other arrangements defined by QCI.
4. CB for which approval has been withdrawn, is requested to provide following details-
  - Application
  - Audit Reports
  - Certificate
  - Any other relevant information like pending payment
5. There will be no change in existing certification cycle.
6. CB shall follow the financials arrangements between Certified clients and TUV SUD post transfer of clients till the current certification cycle.
7. New CB need to issue updated certificate for rest of the cycle and send the revised contractual agreement to QCI
8. No transfer audit is required, as all the CBs are approved under the scheme by QCI and NABCB, however CB can review the documents and credentials before formal takeover by the certified clients.
9. CBs shall follow same fee structure as agreed by earlier CB for rest of the certification cycle.
10. 03 months extension can be granted for conduct of surveillance audits; however, no window is allowed for extension of validity of certificate due to transfer.
11. In case, any operational challenges faced while executing the transfer policy QCI may issue further guidelines to address the same.
12. QCI decisions and guidelines shall be final and binding to all the parties involved in transfer process.
13. Any further query related to transfer of clients may be send to QCI email padd\_schemes@qcin.org
